b7C

"I met Francis Yockey in about 1944 [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] the Office of Price Administration.

"From conversations and contacts I had with Yockey, I formed the idea that Yockey thought that Hitler and Germany were fighting the right kind of war in that they intended to unify Europe. I have never heard Yockey say anything directly against this country.

"Yockey was very much against the Jews and thought there were too many of them running the country.

"I do not feel that I am in a position or have enough knowledge of Yockey to say whether or not Yockey is loyal to the United States.

"I have read the foregoing statement and it is true to the best of my knowledge.

"I have known Francis Yockey since about 1939 or 1940. I have had about fifteen contacts with Yockey since I first met him.

"Francis Yockey is a radical and an atheist. From my conversations with him, I formed the opinion that he was a Nazi.

"I have often heard him make statements that 'Hitler is right' and 'the Jews are running everything.'

"Francis Yockey went to the extreme of trying to convert [REDACTED] to Nazism [REDACTED]

"Francis was very eager to go with the U. S. occupation service in Germany and I have heard him say he wanted to go there to organize a new Germany.

b7C [REDACTED] was greatly influenced by him and thought along the same lines, especially when Francis was around.

In the course of conversations I had with Yockey I got the impression that he believed in the theory of the super-race and made very disparaging remarks about the Jews. I also formed the opinion that he was an admirer of Hitler and that Yockey thought Hitler did not go far enough in his actions against the Jews.

"I cannot recall any specific remarks he made giving me the impression of his belief in the super-race theory but there were, on many occasions, without the slightest provocation, remarks made against Jews and others having religious beliefs.

"I have read the foregoing statement and it is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

b7c /s/ [REDACTED]

b7c [REDACTED] she and her daughter, [REDACTED] first met YOCKEY. YOCKEY called at the [REDACTED] apartment for a period of two weeks. During this period, YOCKEY frequently made remarks which were unfavorable to the United States and were definitely pro-German and anti-Jewish. [REDACTED] stated YOCKEY said HITLER had the right idea in getting rid of the Jews and that HITLER's other ideas were also correct.

b7c [REDACTED] advised that on one occasion YOCKEY brought a friend of his along and that they spent the evening in singing German songs over her objections. The friend's name, as she recalls, is [REDACTED] and she stated [REDACTED] wore an Army uniform.

b7C [REDACTED] Detroit, Michigan, advised she met FRANCIS YOCKEY [REDACTED] in approximately October, 1945, and that she knew him in all for a period of three or four weeks. She stated YOCKEY visited her at her mother's apartment and, on several occasions, brought [REDACTED] a soldier, with him. She stated YOCKEY had made remarks about Jews and Negroes which were very unflattering to them and that he apparently considered himself a very superior type of person. [REDACTED] b7C [REDACTED] She stated FRANCIS could speak German fluently and, on several occasions, sang songs in German.

b7C On one of his visits, FRANCIS YOCKEY told her he was almost [REDACTED] She also recalled that YOCKEY made the statement that HITLER would rise again. She described [REDACTED] as idolizing YOCKEY and his ideas. [REDACTED]

b7C [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated that as a result of her conversations and contacts with YOCKEY, she formed the impression that he was definitely pro-German. [REDACTED]

FIND PASSPORT MYSTERY MAN DEAD IN CELL

Probe Possible Link to International Plot

San Francisco, June 17
[Special]—The life of Francis

P. Yockey, 47, passport fraud suspect, ended Friday as he had lived it—shrouded in mystery—as he committed suicide in a jail cell without known reason while Yockey authorities probed his possible connection with international intrigue.

Yockey, who had been held in city prison since his arrest by federal agents in Oakland on June 6, was found dead in his cell. Coroner Paul Green said he killed himself with cyanide.

But his death didn't stop an extensive investigation into his background. It was learned that a federal grand jury here has no intention of ending the inquiry begun with his arrest, and that it will continue on the theory others may be involved in a passport ring with sinister implications.

Study His Travels

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, state department, United States attorney's office, and police dived anew into Yockey's record of wanderings in European countries and reports of neo-Nazi writings and associations with fascist groups.

Yockey's sister, Mrs. William D. Coyne, wife of a navy commander stationed at Bethesda, Md., said her brother was "not an anti-communist," and that he "was an anti-Zionist."

FBI agents found in Yockey's luggage three passports and seven birth certificates, all bearing different names but with his photograph on all of the passports.

High Bail Stirs Interest

Yockey was visiting at the home of Alexander Sharff in Oakland when federal agents seized him. It was reported that Sharff has since disappeared and is being sought. The high bail of $50,000 set in federal court to guarantee Yockey's appearance on a charge of passport fraud aroused interest in his background.

He said he was a cum laude graduate of the University of Notre Dame law school in 1941. He also had been a student at Georgetown university.

He served as an assistant county prosecutor in Detroit and was an assistant prosecutor in the Nuremberg war crimes trial. He was said to have written six books, mostly concerning trends in governments. He was in Chicago in 1947 and was then reported to be living at Godfrey, Ill.

Sister Kept in Dark

His whereabouts in the following years was obscure. His sister, who came here and visited him in jail after his arrest, said she hadn't heard from him for 10 years but "guessed he was in Europe." She didn't know where he got money for his travels. She said he spoke French, German, and Italian fluently.

"He was an anti-Zionist but not an anti-Semitic," she said. "He was aware of everything that went on in the world."

"He was not an anti-communist. He felt that Russia has a role to play in world history. He felt that every country has a destiny. One of his books was entitled 'American Destiny.'

Final Note Puzzling

Federal agents gave no indication they have been able thus far to solve the mystery of Yockey's life. Even a note Yockey left was strange. Written on a torn piece of foolscap, it read:

"I shall write no messages which I know will never be delivered—only this which will be: You will never discover who helped me, for he is to be found in your own multitudinous ranks, at least 'wardly.'

NY - DAILY NEWS 6/17/60
P4 L7-153

A Multi-Passported Suspect Dies in Jail

San Francisco, June 17 (special).—A mysterious traveler, arrested 10 days ago with seven birth certificates and three passports containing his photograph, each in a different name, was found dead today in his cell.

The man with all the documents, Francis P. Yockey, 47, one-time assistant county prosecutor in Detroit, had been held in the city jail here under $50,000 bail for trial on passport fraud charges.

Deputy Coroner James Prideaux said Yockey appeared to have poisoned himself.

Tried to Escape

Yockey, a native of Manistee, Mich., and a graduate of Georgetown and Notre Dame Law School, was picked up in Oakland June 6 by the FBI. He tried to escape from Agent Robert Leonard by slamming a door on the G-man's hand.

The FBI said Yockey had used the passports on trips to England, Belgium and Germany. There was no indication of the purpose of these trips.

Yockey's body was found this morning by his cellmate, Adam Nieman, 55, who is awaiting trial for theft.

Note in Blanket

In the folds of the blanket covering Yockey was an unsigned note. It said: "I shall write no letters, which I know will never be delivered—only this which will be: You will never discover who helped me, for he is to be found in your own multitudinous ranks, at least outwardly."

Yockey, discharged from the Army in 1943 on psychiatric grounds, had been ordered by Federal Judge William Swerigert.

Re bulky exhibits 100-25647-1B1 thru 1B6.

A review of these bulky exhibits indicates that items are photostatic copies of personal letters and personal effects of subject.

It is not felt that any of these exhibits at the present time have any value to the Bureau. Furthermore, there is very little likelihood that they will ever be of value in the ~~future~~ future to the Bureau or any other governmental agency.

In view of the above, it is recommended that instant bulky exhibits be destroyed.
